

THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

Applications are invited for:-

Department of Geography and Resource Management Assistant Professor / Associate Professor

(Ref. 0910/081(737)/2) (Closing date: January 30, 2010)

The Department invites applicants for a full-time Assistant Professor / Associate Professor post in Resource Management and Environmental Studies.

Applicants should have a PhD degree in geography, environmental science or other related disciplines, specializing in one or more of the following fields:

- energy resources
- environmental assessment and policy
- sustainable development
- global change and mitigation

Preference will be given to those with substantial experience in resource management and environmental sustainability research in China. The appointee will teach both introductory and advanced courses at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, as well as general education courses. He/She will be expected to demonstrate potential for teaching excellence, and to contribute actively and productively to research programmes. Appointment will normally be made on contract basis for up to three years initially commencing in August 2010, leading to longer-term appointment or substantiation later subject to performance, funding and mutual agreement.

Salary and Fringe Benefits

Salary will be highly competitive, commensurate with qualifications and experience. The University offers a comprehensive fringe benefit package, including medical care, plus a contract-end gratuity for an appointment of two years or longer and housing benefits for eligible appointee. Further information about the University and the general terms of service for appointments is available at <http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/personnel>. The terms mentioned herein are for reference only and are subject to revision by the University.

Application Procedure
